VOLUME CIX.--NO. 81. ALEXANDRIA, VA., FRIDAY EVENING, APRIL 3, 1908. PRICE 2 CENTS

The Badge of Honesty

Is on every wrapper of Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery because a full list of the ingredients composing it is printed there in plain English. Forty years of experience has proven its superior worth as a blood purifier and invigorating tonic for the cure of stomach disorders and all liver ills. It builds up the run-down system as no other tonic can in which alcohol is used. The active medicinal principles of native roots such as Golden Seal and Queen's root, Stone and Mandrake root, Bloodroot and Black Cherrybark are extracted and preserved by the use of chemically pure, triple-refined glycerine. Send to Dr. R. V. Pierce at Buffalo, N. Y., for free booklet which quotes extracts from well-recognized medical authorities such as Drs. Bartholow, King, Scudder, Coe, Ellingwood and a host of others, showing that these roots can be depended upon for their curative action in all weak states of the stomach, accompanied by indigestion or dyspepsia as well as in all bilious or liver complaints and in all "wasting diseases" where there is loss of flesh and gradual running down of the strength and system.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" makes rich, pure blood and so invigorates and regulates the stomach, liver and bowels, and, through them, the whole system. Thus all skin affections, blotches, pimples and eruptions as well as scrofulous swellings and old open running sores or ulcers are cured and healed. In treating old running sores, or ulcers, it is well to insure their healing to apply to them Dr. Pierce's All-Healing Salve. If your druggist don't happen to have this Salve in stock, send fifty-four cents in postage stamps to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., and a large box of the "All-Healing Salve" will reach you by return post.

You can't afford to accept a secret nostrum as a substitute for this non-alcoholic, medicine OF KNOWN COMPOSITION, not even though the urgent dealer may thereby make a little bigger profit.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. Sugar-coated, tiny granules, easy to take as candy.

BATTLE IN COURT ROOM.

Found guilty of a charge of arson, Henry F. McDonald, in the Circuit Court room at Terra Haute, Ind., yesterday shot and killed Chief of Detectives William E. Dwyer, seriously wounded three policemen and a bystander, and was himself seriously wounded. McDonald had been tried for dynamiting stores and a church in Sanford last year.

As soon as the jury reported its verdict, McDonald jumped up, drew a revolver, and fired at Prosecuting Attorney James A. Cooper, jr., but missed, because Cooper tipped his chair over backward. McDonald continued firing at the police witnesses, seated around the counsel table. Detective Dwyer fell dead at the third shot.

Policemen and deputy sheriffs in the court room drew revolvers and opened fire on McDonald, who returned the shots. Before the convicted man fell with half a dozen bullets in his body, he had shot Harvey V. Jones, superintendent of police, in the side; Deputy Sheriff Ira Wellman, in the chin; Sylvester Doyle, court bailiff, in the leg, and a bystander in the side.

Some of the spectators to the shooting said McDonald's brother also fired at the officers. The brother is being sought by the police.

McDonald was finally overwhelmed, his ammunition spent, and his strength weakened by wounds, and taken to a hospital. It is said that McDonald and the other wounded men will recover.

Events which culminated so tragically had their origin in dynamiting outrages that destroyed the Methodist church and the general stores of Shicle & Johnson and J. W. Reese, of Sanford, on the night of February 21, 1907.

AMPUTATION BY MINISTER.

As was stated in the Gazette, five men were injured, three seriously, in a rear-end collision yesterday at Spanish Lake, 15 miles north of St. Louis, between a freight train and a Burlington passenger train.

J. A. McKittrick, a stockman, of Brookfield, was pinioned under the wreckage by his left leg, which was nearly crushed off at the knee. Scalding steam from the damaged passenger locomotive was enveloping him. To save McKittrick's life Rev. R. C. Allen, of Grove City, Pa., cut off the leg with penknife. McKittrick himself urged that the minister cut off his leg, and gave him the knife.

Mrs. Emma Renner, a trained nurse from Cincinnati, a passenger, pressed a bottle of whisky to McKittrick's lips and told him to drink. "I'll try a little of it," said McKittrick, "but I haven't touched a drop of the stuff in five years."

The steam from the engine increased in quanity. "Cut off that leg; I can't stay her and die!" shouted McKittrick.

Heroically Mr. Allen began cutting at the tendons. The knife was dull and McKittrick suffered intense agony.

"Throw it away and get an axe!" he finally cried. But Mr. Allen desperately cut away, and in a few minutes had severed the tendons, after which McKittrick was carried into the car.

Mrs. Renner, the nurse, made a tourniquet of her veil and stanched the flow of blood and then gave McKittrick an opiate and a stimulant.

FIGHTING IN ROME.

There was a funeral procession in Rome yesterday composed of bricklayers and masons, the purpose of which was not so much to show respect for the deceased as to make a hostile demonstration near the building occupied by the Austrian Embassy accredited to the Holy See.

Most of the original participants were anti-clericals, but the cortege was subsequently swelled by several thousand anarchists and loafers, who were looking for trouble. The police were informed of the intention of the crowd, and they blocked the street on which the embassy is located.

While they were trying to break up the crowd, in which work they were aided by soldiers, three wagons loaded with bricks were upset. The demonstrators seized the bricks and used them as missiles. Several policemen and soldiers were hurt. Revolver shots were fired, and these were followed by a rifle volley. The rain of brickbats continued and the soldiers were ordered to fire again.

The first volley had been fired into the air, but the second was aimed at the crowd. Two of the rioters were killed outright and three were fatally wounded. Twelve others were injured.

The crowd became panic-stricken when it realized the troops meant business, and stampeded.

Later the police dispersed a demonstration near the railway station and arrested several men, mostly anarchists.

Twenty policemen and soldiers were seriously injured. The excitement is now subsiding.

Shake off the grip of your old enemy, Nasal Catarrh, by using Ely's Cream Balm. Then will the swelling and soreness be driven out of the tender, inflamed membranes. The fits of sneezing will cease and the discharge, as offensive to others as to yourself, will be stopped when the causes that produce it are removed. Cleanliness, comfort and renewed health by the use of Cream Balm. Sold by all druggists for 50c, or mailed by Ely Bros., 56 Warren street, New York.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

FRIDAY EVENING, APR. 3, 1908.

A NEW YORK paper commenting on the mass meeting in that city of the "unemployed" on last Saturday and the attempt of a desperate anarchist to destroy a platoon of police with a bomb, says: "The Selig Silversteins (the bomb-throwers) are part of the penalty that American society is compelled to pay for its failure to enforce law, administer justice and respect the principles of constitutional government. It permits revolutionary anarchism and socialism openly to advocate murder and bloodshed. It applauds demagogues and demagogy in every attack they make upon the institutions of government." And then the same paper arraigns "American society" in terms designed to prove that "bombthrowers" in the United States are not without provocation for indulging their criminal propensities and in attempting to show this the paper names alleged corrupt politicians in different cities as well as the names of certain railway magnates who are charged with bringing about the financial wreck of roads. An esteemed cotemporary in commenting on the above says:

In the same issue of the New York paper a cartoon, filling nearly one-fourth of its editorial page is printed depicting an anarchist, bomb in hand, apparently about to start on a mission of death and destruction. This cartoon is entitled "The Menace." We believe no injustice or exaggeration is involved in the suggestion that if anarchy and "militant socialism" succeed in gaining a foothold on American soil their success will be due largely to the aid which they receive from a certain class of journals in this country. To our minds there is a growing menace to American institutions and society in the style in which sensational journals deal with the deeds of "addle-brained" anarchists of the Silverstein type, especially when it is coupled with the suggestion that "American society" invites attack by the bombthrower and the assassin. So far as we are informed, the men named in the New York World's editorial as lawless captains of industry or corrupt politicians are in no respect responsible for the lack of employment of which many New Yorkers complain. It is the most dangerous kind of "menace" to American society to suggest, every time some "addle-brained" anarchist commits a crime, that he was inspired by the success which railroad magnates or oil kings had achieved at the alleged expense of the people. There ought to be an effectual way to protect the interests of the public from monopolists without inciting anarchists to crime by the suggestions that they may find extenuation for their dark deeds in the real or fancied immunity from punishment of wealthy Americans.

MANY of the larger cities report thousands of able-bodied men out of employment, while the farmers throughout the country are advertising for help at good wages. The centers of population are feeding men and the rural districts are needing them. The spring plowing and planting should take many from the cities and the demand will steadily increase. Men who cannot find work in the cities can earn enough for food and clothing in the counties. The opening of the summer homes will give opportunities. Those who have trades in which the dull times have come can bridge over the times in this way until posperity starts in again. It is better to do this than to look to borrowed money or the funds in the savings banks or to charity. Moreover, work in the country is far healthier than losing and waiting in the city.

THE Constitution of the United States and the principle of national right seem to be regarded by the trusts as convenient shelters whenever their special privileges are attacked, but as mere rubbish to be brushed aside, whenever they, on the other hand, design to encroach upon the rights of the public. In the opinion of the trusts, privilege and tariff protection mean safety and advantage to themselves alone, and include the policy of plundering the multitude without responsibility. Those Frankensteins constitute the real peril of the age and country.

MR. DALZELL says that republican principles are consistent with each other. A robber tariff, a rubber currency, imperialism, a monopolistic policy, are, indeed, all consistent enough; but they are all the more infamous and rascally on that account. All in all, and all in one, they constitute a system of public plunder.

IT IS said that for every 50 foreign laborers arriving in this country, 147 are leaving it. To have nearly three emigrants to one immigrant is something new in this country experience. It indicates hard times. Nothing like it ever happened while the democrats were in power.

THERE is to be no pruning of the tariff unless grafting is allowed at the same time. A little pruning and a great deal of grafting is the idea of the friends of the tariff. They call this the nonpartisan method.

FOR THE first time in years democrats and republicans, in perfect party alignment, clashed in a parliamentary battle in the House yesterday. It was 10:09 o'clock last night when adjournment was taken. Then the republicans, by a vote of 121 to 81, won out. Leaders of the minority had exhausted their resources, and after thirteen roll calls the democrats realized that they were worsted. More unusual is the fact that the battle was begun because the democrats could get no assurance that the majority would carry out legislation as suggested in President Roosevelt's recent message. There was no beating about the bush when Mr. Williams, of Mississippi, minority leader, declared himself. Just as clearly did Mr. Payne, of New York, heading the republicans, accept the challenge. "We'll carry out legislation as we see fit," was virtually his reply, adding "The majority have charge of the business of the House, and the business will go through just as the majority decide it shall go through." So from this time till the adjournment of Congress legislation for the republican party instead of for the good of the country may be expected.

From Washington.

Washington, D. C., April 3.

Now that it has actually been begun, the majority leaders in the House says they are rather thankful than otherwise for the minority filibuster, organized by Minority Leader Williams. They believe it will redound to the credit of their leadership. The republican leaders believe and that the filibuster will have the effect of uniting the majority. Once accustomed to being led, the House chieftains see no reason for the members revolting against the Aldrich bill, or even the Gallinger-Goebel mail subsidy bill, which are being pressed for passage through the House, now that they have been approved by the Senate. For both bills the House leaders have a most kindly feeling. The democrats express themselves as well satisfied with what they have already accomplished. The fact of placing the republicans in an attitude of apparent opposition to the "President's policies" is regarded by them as capital ammunition for the coming campaign. Republican floor leader Payne says he will take revenge on the democrats for putting the republicans in this position. The war claims bill, in which southern members are particularly interested, will be chloroformed, and hereafter whenever a democratic head appears on the floor it will be made the target for a volley of legislative brick-bats.

Two affidavits intended to prove improper practices by the Electric Boat Company, were put in evidence today by Representative Lilley before the special committee investigating his charges of corruption of Congress by the boat company. One, signed by John C. Lake, of Rutherford, N. J., vice president of the Lake Torpedo Boat Company, tells of Charles Ferry, of Bridgeport, Conn., saying that an official of the Fore River Shipbuilding Company had asked Ferry to use all influence possible "on a Connecticut member of Congress" to induce him to cease using his influence for the Lake Company and to use it for the Electric Boat Company. If this were done, Ferry said, the officials had promised that his company would make a $100,000 contract with Ferry's company, the Bridgeport Brass Company. The second affidavit is by Sam Ferguson, of Bridgeport, Conn., who says that in 1902, he and other members of the United States navy served on submarine boats owned by the Electric Boat Company, and that although they were being paid by the navy, the company gave them additional money. This affidavit was put in to contradict statements of the officers of the Electric Boat Company that they never paid money to enlisted men of the navy. Benjamin Micou, an attorney of this city and a partner of Hilary A. Herbert, was the first witness. His firm is counsel for the Berger Subsurface Torpedo Boat Company. He described having sent letters and a brief to the Navy Department, asking that some of the Berger boats be purchased for the navy.

The last of the battleships of the Pacific fleet to take their turn at target practice, finished their gun work yesterday, according to a dispatch received at the Navy Department today from Rear Admiral Thomas, acting commander-in-chief. He stated that the battleships which have torpedo tubes will begin on torpedo practice, which will require several days. It is expected, however, that the entire work will be completed two or three days ahead of the schedule, and that the fleet will have a ample time in which to reach San Diego by April 14.

Taking of testimony in the case of Mrs. Elsie French Vanderbilt against her husband, Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt, for divorce was begun in New York yesterday afternoon, one witness being examined. When the hearing was adjourned none of the persons interested would talk for publication, but it was admitted that the case would be rushed, so that the evidence and the findings and recommendations of the referee would probably be in the hands of the court before Mr. Vanderbilt reaches the other side on the Mauretania. The one witness called was tha personal valet of Mr. Vanderbilt, Howard Kempster.

The President, while not intending to send any message to Congress on the subject, is said to believe that the government would be wise to secure these grounds. For $960,000 a total of 330 acres are offered the government. For $750 000 the offer takes in 250 acres. The President intends to confer with Secretary Metcalf on the subject.

CONFERENCE

Yesterday's proceedings of the Baltimore Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, which is being held at Hamline Church, Washington, was replete with interesting events, the chief of which was the debate over the proposition to reduce the representation of the annual conference in the general conference and the turning down of the overture from the last general conference which provides for the election of bishops of the races among whom they are to work. This proposition carried with it the election of negro ministers. There was no need for any discussion on the latter question, and the members of the conference did not waste any time in argument. They had decided to reject the overture, and they did it without any frills or flounces. The proposition to reduce the representatives was also defeated.

Rev. Dr. L. T. Widerman submitted the report of the trustees of the church home fund and the committee on the Baltimore book depository. The reports stated that it was thought a book depository might be established in Baltimore during the coming year, and this will probably be done. Both reports were adopted.

The election of the following trustees of the Woman's College was confirmed: L. T. Widerman, Charles E Hill, Henry M. Wilson, R. F. Miller, James M. Gamble, Benjamin F. Bennett, Henry S. Dulaney, John B. Van Meter and Mrs. Mary Louise Furst.

Messrs. James A. Dawkins and Edgar N. Ash, both of Baltimore, who have been appointed justices of the peace by Governor Crothers, were denounced on the floor of the conference for their attitude toward the local option bill in the legislature, and a strong resolution requesting the governor not to appoint them to police magistracies was adopted unanimously.

A resolution calling for the establishment of closer relations between the Methodist Episcopal Church, and the M. E. Church South, was passed with practical unanimity at today's session of the conference. This measure was adopted principally in view of the many overlappings, the home missionary and of these denominations have experienced in Baltimore and Washington. Henceforth, in view of the adoption of the resolution. Missionaries representing both denominations will be requested to work in co-operation with each other, with more expedition, and with less labor and expense.

A motion of Rev. S. B. Tredway yesterday in the Methodish Protestant Conference in Snow Hill, Md., to expunge from the previous day's minutes the names of Mr. Dawkins and Mr. Ash, of Baltimore city, in connection with the resolution asking the Governor to omit them from the list of police magistrates to be designated by May 1, was the means of precipitating a heated and lengthy discussion which lasted two hours.

The resolution was referred to a special committee.

The committee later reported and practically killed what the conference had so hurriedly rushed through on Wednesday.

Subsequently resolutions were adopted requesting the Governor not to appoint to an office of public trust any man who helped to defeat the local opinion bill.

Rev. G. L. Wolf, who had asked that certain charges against him be investigated, was vindicated. It is likely, however, that he will ask to be allowed to leave the conference or else be left without an appointment.

President Sheridan is now having his troubles over the matter of selecting ministers for the different charges and stations in the conference district. He has a number of vacant pulpits to fill, and then, too, many changes will be made in pastorates.

SUICIDE IN BRIDAL ATTIRE.

Mary Greene, 22 years old, of New York, committed suicide in the bathroom of her home yesterday afternoon by inhaling illuminating gas through a tube. She was to have been married on Easter Sunday. To prepare for death she decked herself out in her wedding clothes, even tying up her hair in white ribbon and putting on a pair of long, white gloves.

A letter left by the suicide was found in her room, It runs as follows:

Dear Bill—Forgive me for what I am about to do. Take care of my body. Forgive and pity me. God help me and you. All I have is yours. Lovingly and devotedly, MAY.

It is addressed to her fiance, William Eddington, an electrical engineer, living at King Bridge.

"E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago, Ill.—Gentlemen—In 1897 I had a disease of the stomach and bowels. In the spring of 1902 I bought a bottle of Kodol and the benefit I received all the gold in Georgia could not buy. May you live long and prosper. Yours very truly, C. N. Cornell, Rodine, Ga., Aug. 27, 1906." Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.

Postoffice Robbed.

[Special Dispatch to the Alexandria Gazette.]

Richmond, Va., April 1.—Burglars blew open the postoffice at Princess Anne Court House last night and got away with $500 in money and stamps.

Thirty-three Men Drowned.

Plymouth, April 3.—To an officer's misjudgment of distance was due the loss of the torpedo boat destroyer Tiger, with thirty-three of her crew, in collision with the cruiser Berwick during last night's British naval maneuvers off the Isle of Wight.

The night maneuvers were progressing under an overcast sky and in intense darkness, save as the searchlights, here and there, cut through the gloom.

Everything had progressed well for an hour when the officers on the bridge of the Berwick saw the Tiger suddenly swing across their bows. The officer who had the command had plainly misjudged his distance, and thought the destroyer would easily clear the larger vessel.

To those on the cruiser's bridge, from their more commanding position, it was evident a collision was imminent. Other ships were so near that it was impossible to alter the craft's course, but the order to reverse was instantly given.

The Tiger's commander saw his mistake at the same time and could be heard frantically shouting to the steersman to swing aside.

It was to late to prevent a collision and the Berwick, at almost undiminished speed, struck the Tiger amidships and cut her completely in two.

The severed halves of the steel destroyed went to the bottom before the Berwick could get boats overside and the Tiger's crew was struggling in the waves as the rescuing craft splashed into the water.

The cruiser Gladiator, from which the accident had also been seen, also instantly swung its boats over and the searchlights were kept playing across the waves until dawn as guides to the the rescuers and beacons of hope to the swimming sailors.

Those who had managed to jump clear of the wreckage of the torpedo boat destoyer and to keep close alongside the Berwick were saved with little difficulty. Many of the men were entangled in the debris, however, cooped below and never came to the surface after the Tiger sank. There was a stiff breeze blowing, too, and a number were carried far to sea before the lifeboats reached them.

Latest advices are that Lieutenant Middleton, commander of the destroyer Tiger, was among the drowned.

Populist National Convention.

St. Louis, April 3.—The platform committee of the populist national convention early today agreed on the platform which will be adopted today. The plank is practically the same as that of the Omaha convention sixteen years ago, declaring that the government should have absolute control of the issue of money in sufficient needs for the demands.

George A. Honnecker, of Jersey City, N. J., was permanent chairman when the convention reassembled today. Jos. B. Coxey, as temporary chairman, ruled the convention with an iron hand.

The platform endorses the initiative and referendum, public ownership of public utilities, the income tax law and direct vote for United States Senators. The United States Supreme Court is arraigned for its decision which gives corporations or individuals the right of enjoining State officials from the enforcement of State laws.

Trouble Expected.

Paterson, N. J., April 3.—Trouble is expected here tonight over the determination of Police Chief Bimson to prevent a scheduled meeting of anarchists to protest against the mails being closed to their organ, La Questione. Mayor McBirde has issued instructions that no more anarchists meetings will be allowed. Several of the anarchists have declared that tonight's meeting will be held, whether the police interfere or not. Alexander Berkman, the anarchist, who shot H. C. Frick and who is under arrest in New York on a charge of complicity in the bomb throwing there last Saturday, is advertised as the chief speaker at tonight's meeting.

A Denial.

Lexington, Ky., April 3.—The report that the burning of the big circle barn on the Elmdorf farm of James B. Haggin, destroying 44 thoroughbred horses, was due to night riders, is denied by Manager Charles H. Berryman. The horses burned were 33 thoroughbreed brood mares and eleven suckling colts. About two hundred men were discharged from the farm just after the financial troubles in New York, and a few days ago Manager Berryman received a letter threatening the destruction of horses on the farm with poisoning by paris green.

Strike In Rome.

Rome, April. 3.—A general strike has been called in retaliation for yesterday's attack by the troops on an anarchist funeral, in which two men were killed and a number of others wounded. The funeral was that of a man prominent in labor council. The funerals of yesterday's victims will be made the occasion it is announced, of record-breaking labor demonstrations. Serious riots, are feared and the city is being filled with soldiers from the outlying districts.

House Dynamited.

Rochester, N. Y., April 3.—Frank Dimaria was made the target for a second Black Hank attack today when a bomb was exploded against his home. The house was badly damaged, but the inmates escaped injury. This is the second time within a few weeks that Dimaria's home has been dynamited following a demand for $500.

New York Stock Market.

Admiral Evans.

Paso Robles, Cal., April 3.—Admiral Evans has begun treatment for rheumatism and both he and the doctors are hopeful he will be able to resume command of the fleet in a short time. At present the admiral is a complete cripple as a result of the disease. He says he will be on the bridge of the Connecticut when she floats through the Golden Gate, or die in the attempt.

Paso Robles, Cal., April 3.—Overwhelmed with the kindness shown him and the interest in him and the fleet, Admiral Evans today said: "If this is an indication of the way the Admiral people feel toward me, that bunch of politicians in Congress who are opposing making me vice admiral can take the commission and bury it in the stokehole of hell. I'm rewarded enough with the peoples regard and sympathy."

Scare on Stock Exchange.

New York, April 3.—Somebody busted a paper bag on the floor of the Produce Exchange today. It exploded with a loud pop. Instantly about 150 brokers jumped a foot high. They returned to earth quivering with horror and dripping with sweat-cold. Then they realized that only their nerves were damaged.

E. H. Trafton got a letter extending the invitation to the brokers to sail Heavenward. They could send regrets if they wanted to, but they must take the form of a cash contribution to the letter writer or writers. In one corner of the sheet was a good imitation of a skull and cross bones. The brokers decided not to contribute. But they're pretty nervous, as the paper bag incident shows.

Young Men Asphyxiated.

Baltimore, April 3.—Two young men believed to be William Gordon and Chester Jones, of Whiteford, Hartford county, Md., were found unconscious from the effects of illuminating gas in a room at the Hotel Desch, on north Charles street, last night, and removed to the City Hospital, where the man thought to be Gordon died this morning without gaining consciousness. Despite the efforts of physicians to revive him, the other victim is still unconscious with little chance of recovery. When found both men were fully dressed, and this led to a report of a suicide pact. It is generally believed, however, that the young men were unfamiliar with gas and blew it out instead of turning it out.

Organizing Revolution?

San Francisco, April 3.—The federal officials here have been warned that conspirators are in San Francisco organizing a revolution against President Figueroa of San Salvador. Collector of Port Stratton and District Attorney Devlin are searching the city for John and Edward Moissant, believed to be back of the plot. These two men were reported to be the backers of Dr. Alfaro who attempted to overthrow Figueroa last summer. At that time they were thrown in jail. United States Minister Merry protested and the two Americans were released after the cruiser Milwaukee had prepared to bombard Acajutla.

Sixtieth Congress.

Washington, April 3.

SENATE.

The Senate was not in session today, having adjourned yesterday till Monday.

HOUSE.

"Mr. Speaker, I demand the yeas and nays on this question." The question was the approval of yesterday's journal and the demand was made when the House met today by Mr. Williams as the first move of the day in continuation of his filibuster.

Although the democrats voted unanimously for a roll call, all joined with the republicans in voting to approve the journal.

After the journal had been approved, Chairman Tawney, of the appropriations committee, asked for unanimous consent to consider the urgent deficiency bill just through the Senate. As the bill is a pet labor measure, carrying $2,000,000 to keep employers at work in the navy yards, Mr. Willism did not want to object, but tried to reserve that right until he made a statement, explaining he would not object this once.

The speaker, with one grand sweep of the left arm, informed Mr. Williams he could not make a statement, unless he should get unanimous consent. Mr. Williams decided it was easier to object, and then followed another roll call. Everybody voted "aye."

CONGRESSIONAL.

The general arbitration treaty drawn up by The Hague Peace Conference, and two other conventions of that conference, were agreed to in an extended executive session of the Senate yesterday.

The nomination of David Jayne Hill to be ambassador to Germany, and those of Arthur M. Beaupre and Spencer F. Eddy to be, respectively, Minister to Denmark and Minister to Argentina, were confirmed.

Senator Carter reported a compromise postal savings bank bill from the committee on postoffices and postroads.

The committee on public buildings and grounds reported favorably the bill to complete the park surrounding the District filtration plant.

The Senate adjourned until Monday next.

The agricultural appropriation bill, after nine days' discussion, was passed by the House carrying a total of $11,508,000.

The democrats late in the afternoon forced a filbuster, and the republicans, accepting the challenge, put the matter to a test, thus compelling a night session.

A resolution distributing the President's message—the message of January 31—was finally passed after five solid hours of filibustering by the democrats.

Formal notice was served on the democrats by Mr. Payne, of New York, the leader of the majority, that from that time on the republicans would lock horns with the democrats and carry through the programme of the majority in spite of the attempt of the minority, under the leadership of Mr. Williams, of Mississippi, to dictate the character of legislation to be enacted.

Horsewhipped by a Woman.

Corry, Pa., April 3.—In the presence of a thousand people Mrs. Minnie Cowden, of Jamestown, N. Y., horsewhipped Henry Franklin in the city's main thoroughfare today. When Franklin tore the whip from her hands Mrs. Cowden broke an umbrella over his head. According to Mrs. Cowden Franklin had been annoying her with his attentions.

The Indiana republican presidential convention yesterday instructed for Vice-President Fairbanks and nominated a State ticket with James E. Watson for Governor.

FAIRFAX SUPERVISORS.

The Board of Supervisors met at Fairfax county, on Monday last, all the members being present. There was considerable discussion as to the meaning of certain provisions of the new road law, and efforts to so interpret it as to get it in working order. It is said that the court's construction of some of the provisions will be necessary before we will know exactly where we are "at." The following road commissioners were elected:

Centreville District.—Henry E Davis.

Lee District —Calvin H. Davis.

Mt. Vernon District.—Wyckliff Claggett.

Falls Church District.—Geo. W. Bladen and James M. Mason.

Providence District.—D. B. Elgin and E. M. Wiley.

There were no applications or recommendations as to Dranesville, and the election of commissioners for that district was deferred until the next meeting.

Messrs. Geo. Auld and J. S. Pearson were appointed a committee to look into the matter of building a new poor house and a suitable house for the superintendent of the poor, with instructions to report at the next meeting.—[Herald.

The Nebraska delegation which is trying to procure a postponement of the populist national convention in the interests of W. J. Bryan made no progress at St. Louis, yesterday, and neither did the convention, except as to speeches. After two sessions were held, at the conclusion of which permanent organizations had not been effected, the convention adjourned till tomorrow.

SCHOOL BOARD.

At the regular meeting of the City School Board held last night there were present Capt. Herbert Bryant, chairman, and Messrs. Thompson, Stabler, Yates, Ramsay, Thomson, Bradshaw, Boothe, Smoot, Carter and Dr. Smith.

Mr Thompson, from the committee on studies and discipline, to whom had been referred the matter of teaching music in the schools, reported progress.

Several bills for repairs were ordered to be paid.

The finance committee, to whom had been referred the petition of four teachers for an increase in salaries, reported that the board had no funds available for such purpose.

Dr. Smith from the special committee to whom had been referred the matter of securing rooms for the four schools removed from the third story of Peabody building and the one removed from the third story of Academy building and also the matter of a new school building, reported that the committee had secured the use of Armory Hall for the one boys school, free of cost, and of the building on Prince street near Pitt, belonging to Mrs. Ewing, for the four girls schools for $100 for three months, the board to pay any damage that may be done to the building. The committee had examined several buildings, and recommended the use of Mrs. Ewing's house and Armory Hall. The committee had also met a a City Council committee on Monday night last and had discussed the matter of a new school building and would hold another meeting soon in reference to the matter. The committee stated that the matter of selling Peabody building was still open.

Mr. Stabler, from the same special committee, reported that several sites for a new school building had been examined and reported the price at which the lots could be secured.

Mr. Ramsay moved that the report of the special committee be accepted and that the committee be empowered to secure the two buildings for the five schools.

Mr. Carter opposed the report and moved that Peabody and Academy buildings be closed at once; that schools be dismissed for the session and that Peabody building be offered for sale at once.

Mr. Yates seconded Mr. Carter's motion and wanted to telegraph for School Examiner Maphis to come here at once and bring the State architect with him and break ground at once; he also wanted the people of Alexandria to get busy about the new school building.

Dr. Smith defended the report of the special committee and urged against the adoption of the ideas of Messrs. Carter and Yates as they were impractical.

Mr. Ramsay's motion was then adopted, Messrs. Carter and Yates voting in the negative.

Mr. Ramsay then moved that the committee on schoolhouses and furniture be directed to install the five schools in the two buildings named by the special committee.

Messrs. Yates and Carter, members of the schoolhouse and furniture committee, asked to be relieved from service in the matter as they did not approve of the action of the special committee in selecting the buildings and as there committee had not been consulted in the matter.

On motion of Mr. Smoot the special committee was given full power to act in the matter of installing the schools and also in the matter of the grand jury's report in reference to the school buildings.

The board then adjourned.

THE YOUNG MEN'S SENATE.

The Young Men's Senate of the M. E. Church South held a very interesting meeting last night in the Young People's building. It was an open meeting, and the auditorium was densely packed. It was eleven o'clock before the Senate adjourned. One of the most interesting features of the occasion was the reception tendered Rev. C. D. Bulla as chaplain of the Senate. Mr. Bulla has been reappointed minister of the M. E. Church South in this city, and many persons in the assemblage not members of his church were present and vied with those of his flock in expressing their earnest approbation of the action of the conference in returning Mr. Bulla to the Washington street church. The following was the order of business:

Prayer by Chaplain, Rev. C. D. Bulla.
Roll call.
Reading journal of last meeting.
New business.

It was resolved that the next meeting be held on Thursday evening, April 9.

It was also resolved that a new school house be erected at once for the girls of Alexandria, the subject to be discussed at the next regular meeting.

Reception of Chaplain, Rev. C. D. Bulla, by Senator Monroe from Pennsylvania.

Response from Chaplain, Rev. C. D. Bulla.

SENT ON TO THE GRAND JURY.

Officers Beach and Garvey yesterday evening arrested William Mankin and Fitzpatrick Ivor, two young men, on the charge of entering the fruit store of Emanuel Taveres, on upper King street, and taking bananas therefrom. The accused were brought before the Police Court this morning. They stated that Taveres was not in the store when they entered, and they helped themselves to the fruit, intending to return and pay for it. Justice Caton sent the prisoners on to the grand jury.

Leandro Marites, Will Litch and George Wilson, all colored, were arrested last night by Officers Sampson and Bell as suspicious characters. Wilson had an opera glass in one of his pockets which was identified as being one of the articles stolen from the store of George Ayers. The two first-named were released after having been arraigned before the Police Court this morning, but Wilson was sent on to the grand jury.

When Explosives Explode.

A popular notion that explosives will "go off" by any simple method is wrong. Many of the most powerful explosives imaginable may be kicked about, may be set on fire or may be shot out of a gun, and unless the proper agency for exploding them is employed they will not "go off" and will do no damage. The reason for this may be explained by an illustration. Consider a grateful of coal. There is there enough of what we may call explosive energy to throw a 1,000 pound weight through a foot of solid steel—if only it could be liberated. But there can be no explosion without oxygen, and the coal in the grate will not burn faster than the supply of oxygen in the air which reaches it will permit. If the coal could be furnished all at once with enough air to cause its complete burning, it would explode with as great violence as if it were so much dynamite.—St. Nicholas.

The Sun of the Blind.

I have not touched the outline of a star nor the glory of the moon, but I believe that God has set two lights in my mind, the greater to rule by day and the lesser by night, and by them I know that I am able to navigate my life bark, as certain of reaching the haven as he who steers by the North star. Perhaps my sun shines not as yours. The colors that glorify my world, the blue of the sky, the green of the fields, may not correspond exactly with those you delight in, but they are none the less color to me. The sun does not shine for my physical eyes, nor does the lightning flash, nor do the trees turn green in the spring. But they have not therefore ceased to exist any more than the landscape is annihilated when you turn your back on it.—Helen Keller in Century.

Harmless Joke.

Place a spool of cotton in the inside pocket of your coat and, having threaded a needle with the beginning of the cotton, pass the needle through the front of the coat, unthread the needle and leave about two inches of the cotton hanging as if it were only a stray piece. The first person you meet will be sure to pick it off you, and his astonishment when he finds there is no end to it will give plenty of innocent fun.

His Hint.

"Don't you want some needles, dear?" queried Brown as he picked up his shirt and glanced at the places where the buttons should have been.

"Why, no," replied Mrs. Brown. "Why do you ask?"

"Oh, I thought," said Brown a trifle nervously, "that probably your old ones had become worn by much use."

His Charm Gone.

Phoebe—You would hardly know Freddy since he got back from Monte Carlo. He lost all his money there, and— Evelyn—Hardly know him! Why, I shan't know him at all!—Illustrated Bits.

His Night Work.

Wifey—What makes you stay at the office so late at nights? Do you gain anything by it? Hubby—No, but I have several times come—er—within an ace of gaining something. — Philadelphia Record.

One Sided.

"Does he enjoy funny stories?"

"Yes; when he tells them."—Houston Post.

There is nothing better than Kodol for dyspepsia, indigestion, sour stomach, belching of gas and nervous headache. It digests what you eat. Sold by W. F Creighton & Co.

Whooping Cough.

I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in my family in cases of whooping cough, and want to tell you that it is the best medicine I have ever used.—W. F. Gaston, Posco, Ga. This remedy is safe and sure. For sale by W. F. Creighton and Richard Gibson.

A Mollified Subject.

Nollekens, the sculptor, was a man of pretty wit and of neat resource in compliment. He had at one time for a sitter a woman of great beauty, but of an extremely nervous and impatient temperament. During her sittings she would constantly change her position, and with each shift of posture her expression changed. At last the sculptor's patience gave way.

"Madam," he cried, "of what avail is your beauty if you will not sit still till I have reflected it in my model?"

The sitter smiled with gratified vanity and was as motionless as a lay figure during the remainder of her sittings.—St. Louis Republic.

"Strong Even In Death."

There is a characteristic story of an American woman formerly well known in London that will bear repeating, says a writer in London Truth. The lady is said to have written the following letter to a royal personage:

"Sir—My medical attendants have just informed me that I am in a hopeless condition. I should die happy did I know that you would be represented at my funeral. I inclose a check for £1,000 to cover all expenses."

When He Got Sense.

Husband—Have you still the letters I wrote you before we were married? Wife—Yes. Why? Husband—Bring them here. I want to burn them. I am just making my will, and I am afraid that if any of my relations see those letters after I am dead they will think I was of unsound mind.—Lustige Blatter.

Easy, but Heavy.

"I suppose it was hard work to follow my argument?" said the lawyer.

"No," answered the judge; "it was easy to follow it, but it was difficult to keep awake until the destination was reached."

Disappointed.

"Tommy, you've got a new little brother. Aren't you glad?"

"A brother? I thought it would be a horse. Papa promised me one for such a long time."—Louisville Courier-Journal.
